CONSULTANCY POLICY

1. Preamble

Consultancy is an important channel through which knowledge and expertise could flow from an Institution to businesses and other external agencies, and it can contribute to the growth, development and productive relationships with these components of society. Consultancy activity in Malla Reddy Dental College for Women (MRDCW), may be associated with contractual relationships, including research, service contracts etc. with government or non-government organization in lieu of a fee. MRDCW, therefore, encourages its faculty to engage in consultancy wherever appropriate, and in a manner that is in conformity with their service agreement with the MRDCW.

2. Purpose

This policy document is intended to lay down the norms for undertaking consultancy work and its facilitation in accordance with the MRDCW's rules and procedures.

3. Definitions and Scope

Consultancy is work of a professional nature, undertaken by members of the Institution in their field of expertise, for clients outside the institution, for which some financial return is obtained. The consultancy will produce some form of contracted output which may be partly or wholly owned by the client. It will be governed by short-term contracts while making minimal use of the College resources. It would be an additional management responsibility for MRDCW, and would involve extra work for existing Faculty & Staff. Therefore, MRDCW will charge a part of the consultancy fee from the member of the MRDCW who is engaged in consultancy. Consultancy for organizations owned by a faculty or staff or an organization in which a faculty or staff may have interest or stake are also included within the scope of this policy document.

4. The Policy

All Research and Non-research consultancies as described in this Policy are governed by the following guiding principles:

- a) There should be a demonstrable benefit to MRDCW from the consultancy through income, enhanced reputation, and/or expanding the expertise of the staff member.

- b) The Consultancy must not be in conflict with the existing MRDCW policies including those governing employment; such as the Code of Conduct Policy.
- c) The Consultancy must not be in conflict with the functions, objectives or interests of MRDCW nor damage its reputation.
- d) At a minimum, the on-cost charges set by MRDCW must be applied to all project budgets. All Consultancies are required to include overheads.
- e) Staff members shall not undertake external research activities where no formal agreement has been authorized by MRDCW, unless they are on leave without pay, approved by MRDCW. Such faculty may not use their CRDA affiliation or academic title when providing research services that are not approved by MRDCW.

5. Exclusions

This consultancy policy does not apply to the activities intended for furtherance of scholarship or general dissemination of knowledge or general enhancement of the intellectual level of the society at large. Such activities, among others, would be:
