Subject: Report of Professional stakeholder feedback for academic year 2023-24

Respected Sir,

We have summarized the Professional stakeholder feedback for academic year 2023-24 as follows

S. No	Feedback
1.	Offer workshops or seminars focused on career development, networking, and business skills for future dental practitioners.
2.	The curriculum should encourage community service, which is crucial for developing compassionate practitioners.
3.	Formalize community outreach projects within the curriculum to ensure all students participate and gain practical experience.
4.	Enhance peer mentorship programs to help students navigate the challenges of dental school and foster a supportive community.
5.	Foster collaborations with other healthcare disciplines through joint seminars or case studies to enhance teamwork skills.
6.	Consider incorporating elective modules to allow students to explore specialized areas of interest, enhancing engagement.
7.	A variety of assessment methods, including practical exams and case studies, provide a comprehensive evaluation of student competence.
8.	Include workshops on career development, business management, and communication skills to better equip students for the professional landscape.
9.	Students should receive substantial hands-on training in clinical settings, which is crucial for their skill development.
10.	The integration of public health and behavioral science enhances the understanding of patient care.
